OFFICIAL PRESS KIT

BIO

Michael Turkowitz started off running around NYC cutting hair, making pizzas and selling mattresses all while delivering medicine full time for his cousin's pharmacy. Mike made a living off of hustling odd jobs, which led him to where he is today. Hip Hop Mike is an established on-air personality and a manager to up and coming artists, LiveLikeDavis and MoraMina. Over the years, he has made a name for himself in radio and the music industry, while always remaining genuine and giving back to the community.

Growing up, Mike moved around often, living between Brooklyn, Queens and Long Island. As a teenager, he was sent to a group home where most of his time was spent listening to Hot 97 on the radio. Mike developed a passion for Hip Hop and his tenacity led him to reach out to media personalities in hopes of a job. After receiving advice, and what would later turn into a job from his mentor, Peter Rosenberg, Mike decided to embark on a solid career path. It required years of hard work, patience and dedication, but through it all, Mike had beat the odds and became who he is today. You will now see Mike on-air, hosting events, and broadcasting interviews with today's hottest artists. He also has his own series called, Elevator Pitch.

K.T. detailed his friendship with Trippie Redd, telling Billboard, "I knew Trippie was special ever since we first met in 2015. Recently, he and I were in the studio together, and we recorded like five joints. One of them was 'Yeah 3x,' which the homie Elliot Trent produced and we made a certified smash. We tested it out on Shade 45 with DJ Whoo Kid and Hot 97 with Hip Hop Mike, and the reaction was crazy, so we knew we had something," he explained. "We're working on getting the video done next, once Trippie gets off of [G-Eazy's] Beautiful & Damned Tour."
